COCKLES Webviewer

COCKLES webviewer includes different layers, such as cockle population connectivity and co-occurrence with non-indigenous species, facilitating the visualization of results and their application in the management of this resource in the Atlantic Area.

Try and explore, it was fully developed as a user-friendly tool:

http://cockles-project.eu/gis-viewer